that there was no such thing as rabies. At the end of the campaign they said rabies vaccines cause rabies," he said.

"I have the authority of health officers, medical scientists, and veterinarians. The opponents have sheets of papers which they read."

He went on to say that upon checking their claims, it was found that their opinions were often based on information which was 20 to 100 years old and the "authorities" whom they cited had shadowy existences.

"I am confident that the vaccine has not caused rabies in mammals," Dr. Thienes said further, speaking of the new vaccine which was introduced in 1951. "By 1954, 1 1/2 million dogs had been vaccinated with it according to record with no injuries or rabies reported."

"It is next to impossible to enforce the leash law," Dr. Thienes declared. "In Los Angeles, it costs $6 for every dog picked up by pound officials. For the first five months, seven officials averaged 100 dogs each per month."

Cost of rabies shots runs from $2 to $5 at a private veterinarian. Arrangements could probably be made for considerably reduced costs on a city-wide basis, Dr. Thienes has declared. Rabies shots need only be given every two years.

"We returned to the 370-acre Principality after 70 days," Mahony said, "where I stayed at the palace in my own apartment overlooking the French Riviera."

"After several weeks there, the Prince and I went to Paris and spent a month enjoying the gaiety, charm, and night life of the capital."

"On weekends we stayed at his mother's chateau in Marchais, a beautiful 10,000 acre estate, with a castle of over 100 rooms," he said. "The Prince and I went duck and pheasant hunting and enjoyed the famous French cooking and wines."

"After eight months, and a total expenditure of $250, I figured I had stretched my luck far enough," Mahony said, "so I headed home."

year-old terrier was owned by Mrs. Mary Everett of 3428 W. 189th st.

Symptoms

Dog owners in that area are warned to keep their animals tied up, and under close observation for the following symptoms: locked open jaws, paralysis of hind quarters, dilated eyes, won't eat or drink.

If any suspicious symptoms are noted, residents should contact the L. A. County Health Department's local office, FA. 8-3310, or the South Bay Humane Society, FR. 2-8100.

No known human or animal contacts have been reported so far. The five members of the Everett family have contacted their private physician for possible Pasteur treatment.

Deadly

Rabies is always fatal both in man and animals. Saliva from a rabid animal is enough to cause the disease upon contact. The only way to protect individuals against the disease once they have been exposed is through a series of 14-21 painful Pasteur treatment which must be started before the rabies virus can reach the nervous system.

Total cases of rabies in Los Angeles city and county for the year stands at 55, seven more than at the same date in 1953 which was considered an epidemic year and the worst in the history of the area.

Most of this year's cases have been concentrated in the southern part of Los Angeles city and county, it was revealed.

Little Arrow Tribe Aids Leader, III

The big hearts of little boys were demonstrated when the Little Arrow Tribe of the Woodcraft Rangers met last Monday at Normandale Playground, and voted nearly half its treasury towards aiding the Manuel O. Valencia family of Norwalk.

The boys had heard of Valencia, voted Citizen of the Year by civic organizations of Norwalk, for his outstanding work among Mexican-American young people. Valencia was leader and organizer of the Aztec Woodcraft Rangers of Norwalk, using his own funds to purchase a truck for the kids to use for summer camping trips.

Then tragedy struck, when Valencia, stricken with cancer, was unable to support his blind wife and three children, Mary 10, Joan 6, and Spike 4. Norwalk organizations are also helping the family, and the American Cancer Society helped finance his recent operation.

Robbery Suspect Gives Up

Robert S. Corder, 28, suspected of holding up a Lomita service station twice in a row as well as a Torrance service station, gave himself up in Sacramento Monday.

Corder allegedly admitted the robberies, according to Torrance detectives.

Corder last lived at 1305 Post ave., Torrance. County sheriffs will pick him up today in Sacramento. He will be charged with three counts of robbery.

B'nai B'rith Changes Date

A new program has been formulated for summer meeting sessions of the South Bay B'nai B'rith Women's Chapter 727. During June, July, and August there will be regular board meetings, where all B'nai B'rith business will be dealt with, thus using the regular meeting nights for social gatherings.

The next regular meeting, to which prospective members will be welcomed, will be held at the Gardena Community Center, 1651 Market st., at 8:30 p.m., Thursday, June 30, instead of June 23, to enable members to attend the Jewish Food Festival at Veteran's Memorial Hall, 4117 Overland ave., Culver City, at 1:30 p.m. or 8 p.m.

Tickets for this event may be purchased by contacting Mrs. Bernard Snitzer, 2720 W. 174th st., Torrance. Proceeds will go to B'nai B'rith philanthropies.

Another new project which Chapter 727 will undertake, is receiving orders for trees to be planted in Israel in memory or honor of anyone. Mrs. Mack Brown, 1518 W. 152nd st., Gardena, may be contacted for further information.
